A Then I put the house up for ment. I had a man come to ment the property. He mented it. He paid me ment for several months. Then he stopped and said he didn't have to pay any ment any more, he was going to live in the house for so many years and claim as a squatter. So I gave him a legal notice to move, which I didn't have any trouble. He moved. Then I rented to another man. He paid me a couple months. He stopped payment. And he said he would live there and claim it as squatter's rights. I served legal notice on him. He refused. Sheriff Anders and I went out and set his furniture on the road. And after that I rented to another man, which I had no more trouble then; until Mr. Rice and I had an agreement.

No. 5, a deed which purports to be a deed made the 6th day of February, 1939, by yourself and Matilda V. Blickenstaff, unto William C. Main; would you look at this Exhibit, sir, and tell me if you recognize it, and if so would you tell me about this? There are two pages to it. Do you recognize that, sir

- A Yes.
- Q Will you tell me what this is?
- A I was advised by an attorney to deed it to someone and they in turn would deed it back to me, which they thought it would be legal.
 - Q And this deed purports to convey it to that third person?
 - A Yes.
- I show you Complainant's Exhibit 4 in this case, and it is a certified copy, certified by the Clerk of the Court, Mr. Ellis Washter, from the Land Records of Frederick County. This purports to be a deed from William C. Main and Nyrtle Main, hir wife, back to Foster H. Blickenstaff and Matilda V. Blickenstaff. Will you take a look at this document and tell me if you recognize that and explain the document, if you can?
- A That is the same property. That was the understanding through the attorney.
